

EASY READ SUMMARY

Before you watch the Cops and Robbers film, you will be shown 2 short films.

All of these films are silent movies, which means they have no words.

There is an Audio Described version of the film available.

The first short film is called 'What's in the Bag?

This is a collection of short clips created by Open Theatre Company.

The second short film is called 'The Bag'.

This is about a man who finds a strange, magical bag in a warehouse.

You will then watch a film called Cops and Robbers.

At the beginning, you will be introduced to 2 Robbers.

They like to steal things out of people's pockets.

There is a group of friends having a picnic.

The friends notice the Robbers trying to steal from them and they tell the Cops.

The Cops chase the Robbers.

The film skips to 'Chez Matthew' which is a restaurant owned by Chef Matthew'.

The Robbers run through the restaurant, and the Cops continue to chase them.

The film then skips to a cinema called 'The Fleapit'.

The cinema is showing a 'Kung Fu' film.

Whilst the film is on, the Robbers run through, chased by the Cops.

The film skips to a wedding, with a nervous groom.

The Robbers interrupt the wedding by running through the church.

One Robber gets chased by the Cops, whilst the other gets away.

The Robber gets caught, and everybody celebrates.

The Robber is taken to a prison called 'Crowbar Hotel'.

The Robber counts his days there by drawing on the wall. He is very bored.

The prisoners line up for their dinner.

They have custard pies for dinner.

Whilst they are eating, the Robber starts to annoy one of the other prisoners.

This causes a custard pie fight!

The custard pie fight distracts the prison guards. The Robber escapes!

He meets up with his old friend (the other Robber) who tries to steal from him.

